END OF 3RD TERM/ END OF 2025/2026 ACADEMIC SESSION NEWSLETTER

THEME: REFLECTING, APPRECIATING AND LOOKING AHEAD

Dear Esteemed Parents and Guardians,

Warm greetings from the Management and Staff of Mercyland Pacific School. As we bring another successful academic session to a close, we sincerely thank Almighty God for His faithfulness, protection, and guidance throughout the session. We also extend our heartfelt appreciation to every parent and guardian for your unwavering support, cooperation, trust, and commitment to the education and well-being of your children. Together, we have made this term a memorable and rewarding one.

A LOOK BACK AT THE TERM

The third term was filled with exciting learning experiences, celebrations, and academic activities that enriched the lives of our learners. Some of the highlights included:

- * Workers' Day Celebration,
- * International Day of Families (Denim Day),
- * International Fair Play Day,
- * World Bee Day,
- * International Tea Day/Tea Party,
- * World Football Day,
- * Children's Day Celebration,
- * Eid-el-Kabir Holiday,
- * Global Day of Parents (Parents Teach Day),
- * World Bicycle Day,
- * World Environment Day,
- * World Oceans Day,
- * PTA/Open Day Meeting,
- * Class Presentations.

These activities provided opportunities for our learners to develop academically, socially, creatively, and morally.

ACADEMIC HIGHLIGHTS

We are delighted with the progress made by our learners throughout the session. Our learners demonstrated improved reading and communication skills, better confidence during presentations, increased participation in classroom activities, growth in teamwork and leadership, creativity through practical and project-based learning. We encourage parents to continue reading with their children during the holiday to sustain this progress.

SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT

We remain committed to providing an excellent learning environment for every child. This term witnessed continuous improvements in quality teaching and learning, classroom management, learners' assessment and feedback, co-curricular activities, parent-school communication, child-centred learning experiences. By God's grace, we look forward to introducing even more innovative programmes in the

GENERAL FEEDBACK

We appreciate the positive cooperation received from parents throughout the term. To help us serve you better, we kindly encourage parents to continue;

- * Ensuring learners arrive at school early.
- * Paying school fees promptly.
- * Checking school bags and communication notes regularly.
- * Supporting homework and reading activities at home.
- * Maintaining regular communication with the Management.

Your partnership makes a significant difference in your child's success.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

To our wonderful parents, thank you for believing in Mercyland Pacific School. Thank you for entrusting your precious children to us. Thank you for your prayers, encouragement, prompt responses, attendance at school programmes, and continuous support. We deeply value your partnership and look forward to achieving even greater milestones together.

HOLIDAY TIPS FOR PARENTS

HOLIDAY TIPS FOR PARENTS During the holiday, kindly encourage your children to:

- * Read at least 20–30 minutes daily.
- * Complete holiday assignments.
- * Practise good handwriting.
- * Participate in educational games.
- * Help with simple responsibilities at home.
- * Observe good manners and personal hygiene.
- * Limit excessive screen time.
- * Learning never stops!

SCHOOL FEES REMINDER

We sincerely appreciate parents who have fulfilled their financial obligations. Parents with outstanding school fees are kindly requested to settle all payments before the commencement of the new academic session. Prompt payment enables the school to continue providing quality education and maintaining excellent learning facilities.

LOOKING AHEAD

As we prepare for another exciting academic session, we remain committed to nurturing every child to become confident, responsible, and excellent learners. Together, we will continue to Be, Believe and Become.

Thank you once again for a wonderful session. We wish all our learners and families a peaceful, safe, refreshing, and enjoyable holiday. May God continue to bless every home with good health, wisdom, joy, and abundant blessings. We look forward to welcoming everyone back for another successful academic session.

Warm regards,

The Management & Staff Mercyland Pacific School

"Be, Believe, Become."
